GENERAL SOLO INFORMATION

Thank you for participating in the ISSMA Solo and Ensemble Festival. We appreciate your time and efforts in making the ISSMA Solo and Ensemble Festival part of the educational process.

A solo source list and a key to publishers have been provided to assist in finding appropriate repertoire for students entered in Events 160 and 162. The required lists for Group I are a collection of songs which cover various levels of vocal difficulty. A single asterisk (*) beside the title designates advanced repertoire. For Event 162, double asterisks () have been used to signify repertoire appropriate for the male unchanged voice, which was formerly Event 164.

* Advanced Repertoire

 Male Unchanged Voice

VOCAL SOLO EVENTS: Event 160 - Young Woman's Voice
 Event 162 - Young Man's Voice

KEY: Students may sing in the key best suited to their individual vocal abilities without having to be classified a Soprano, Alto, Tenor, or Bass. Any key available in the single editions or in the collections included on the source list may be used except in the instances where the key has been specified on the list. Operatic arias are to be sung in their original keys. All Group I solos must be performed in the key presented to the adjudicator.

SOLO SOURCES: Since copyright holders and publishers frequently change, older editions of the same collection and existing single copies printed by another publisher are permissible. Only composer and/or arranger-edition-revision will need to be comparable.

JUDGE'S SCORE: Soloists will supply the judge with one "legal" copy of music in the key to be performed. Measures must be numbered to facilitate judging.

LANGUAGE: Songs must be performed in the language of the text as found on the Required Music List unless otherwise indicated. Compositions titled in English, however, may be sung in a foreign language if printed for optional usage. OPERATIC ARIAS are to be sung only in the original language, unless otherwise indicated.

RECITATIVES: Recitatives are not to be performed, unless otherwise indicated.

REVISION COMMITTEE

The Indiana State School Music Association gratefully acknowledges the professional efforts of the Vocal Manual Revision Committee and all of the contributors who offered suggestions for this publication. Please note that all lists are now arranged alphabetically by song title. This publication contains the required music selections for all Group I vocal solo and ensemble events.
